
The Housing Forum's Future Plans

Shelagh Grant,
Chief Executive, The Housing Forum

-
- a time of opportunity, if we are flexible, creative and collaborative
 - succeeding in the changing environment, Brexit, digitalisation, demographics and recasting of skills and materials
 - gain back the political profile for housing
 - long term political commitment, connecting with the national infrastructure pipeline, industrial strategy, care and health agenda

Our membership is growing

New members:

- Ark Housing Consultancy
- British Gypsum
- Hawkins/Brown Architects LLP
- Kensington and Chelsea TMO
- Luceco

-
- Tobermore
 - Travis Perkins Managed Services
 - Trowers & Hamlins LLP
 - Rochdale Boroughwide Housing
 - Q-Bot

trowers & hamlins

Highlights

- CEO Forums on Brexit, The White Paper, the General Election. CEO Forums in Birmingham, Bristol, Leicester, Manchester, Leeds
- Working Groups:
 - ✓ “Sustainable Leasehold and Long Term Asset Management”,
 - ✓ “Future –proofing housing supply”,
 - ✓ “Building Homes, Building Better”.
- Innovation and Cross sector Workshops

-
- Strengthening our engagement with Government departments, HCA, GLA
 - Consultation Forums on the Estate Regeneration National Strategy, Fixing our broken housing market, Planning and Affordable Housing for Build to Rent – giving government officials access to cross sector insight

Development Partnership Forums

- New offer for new and emerging housing companies from September 2016
- Participating and presenting at quarterly Development Partnership Forums on the housing market, infrastructure and construction, and build to rent
- Resource packs from previous meetings are available at:

<http://www.housingforum.org.uk/our-events/development-partnership-forum>

What's next?

- Taking this further, engaging on the design and quality agenda, accelerated construction and new housing markets
- New web site in planning
- Social media
- News information direct to members
- New Working Groups on Accelerated Delivery and Regenerating Homes
- Members Day 2017 Friday 8 December

